The main campus of Webster University is in Webster Groves, Missouri, a major suburban center of the St. Louis metropolitan area. In addition to the main campus, the University has campuses in downtown St. Louis and in St. Louis County at Westport. In the continental United States, Webster University has campuses in 16 states and in the District of Columbia. Internationally, the University has campuses in Austria, China, Greece, The Netherlands, Singapore, Switzerland, and Uzbekistan. Webster also offers many of its programs online.

Not all degrees and majors are offered at every Webster University location. Campus offerings listed below are accurate as of June 1, 2024. Please see individual campus websites or Webster's Program Finder for current offerings. A schedule of courses for the academic year is available online and at all Webster University locations that offer degree programs.

Campuses marked with this symbol are U.S. campuses that are approved to enroll international graduate students. For further information, please consult Application for International Students under the Admission section of this catalog.*

^Campuses marked with this symbol are located on military bases. Students may be required to produce Real ID state or federal government issued picture identification to enter the base and may need additional documentation provided by the base. It is recommended that new international students coming from abroad who do not have U.S. government issued picture identification not be admitted to these campuses. Only current international students already confirmed for access to the base who have U.S. government issued picture identification should be admitted to these campuses.
